

Announcing 44th Annual
NCEA Conference
Silent Auction
November 22, 2009
(Prior to Awards Banquet)

Community Education
on the Rise

Now is the time to start thinking about and planning for the Silent Auction. Already the home office has some wonderful items lined up to add to the fun. The theme for this year's conference is Community Education on the Rise. Think about what you could add to the auction that might represent "CE on the Rise". As in the past, the Silent Auction will occur right before the Awards Banquet at the end of conference and will be a fun event to conclude this year's event. Remember that all items must be transportable via air craft for those members flying into the Phoenix area.

